Commentary by over 20 users all over the world Users have come up with the following ideas: ■ The Story When the Elden Kingdom was destroyed, the magic of the Elden Ring was ruined and people lost their memories. Meanwhile, a new empire called the Principality appeared, which spread and grew unrestrained throughout the Lands Between. Now, the Elden Ring has once again awakened and it has become capable of killing all the people on this earth. It is a game that lets players experience a new fantasy adventure. ■ Creating the Character We also hope you will write what the character you will be in this fantasy world looks like. Of course, it will be highly entertaining and we look forward to your comments and illustrations!

■ Art by over 6 users Members of the Planning Team are also drawing pictures to inspire the design of the characters and the various environments. The Department of Art Members are calling upon illustrators all over the world to create character illustrations that take on the attitude of the latest generation.
