1. Story-wise it's one of the best. 2. Artistically, I can only say I like it a lot. 3. Enjoyment-wise, it's one of the most rewarding (along with Tale of Two heroes, Ballad of Gaynor, and... why not Chrono Trigger). Story-wise it's one of the best. Artistically, I can only say I like it a lot. Enjoyment-wise, it's one of the most rewarding (along with Tale of Two heroes, Ballad of Gaynor, and... why not Chrono Trigger). Beautiful story, marvelous characters, and a truly unique take on the classic RPG genre. I'm eager to see where Kizuma will go with this game. I hope you enjoy it. :) I'd have to say that I agree with all of the comments above. This soundtrack is fantastic and it really fits the mood of the game perfectly. I wouldn't change a single note, and would gladly purchase a second copy if I ever got bored with my copy. Has no one else noticed that the "Dream" remix isn't the original from the Indigo Prophecy CD? It's a cover of "Épée en l'air". I remember listening to this in Indigo, and it's the same tune, just a faster arrangement. That's quite a tracklist, if I may say so. It's more than a soundtrack - it's a game-within-a-game, in some ways. Definitely one of the most pleasant surprises I've had so far. A great soundtrack that in itself is a tale. Borealis – "The Dream That I Had" (from Venus) 27. "Evening, Fellas" – Venus soundtrack remix from the Indigo Prophecy CD 28. "Dream" (original Indigo Prophecy remix) – Venus soundtrack 29. "Nightmare" – Venus soundtrack The game and story of Venus are both fantastic! I can't wait to get my hands on this soundtrack! I just thought I'd express my appreciation for your wonderful work here. You know, sometimes I work really hard on something and it only seems to go for as far as people would want it to, but then I see something like this and it's all positive. I can't thank you enough for all the work you put into this! I had to change my whole purchasing strategy based on the soundtrack alone. I xD GENDER: Yuuki-chan Gender: "I've always been a girly girl, but I became more than just a 'girly girl' when I became involved with these amazing people, who taught me how to not be ashamed of my true self, and made me feel so beautiful. I love my GFs, but I don't want to have to ask or get permission to hug & kiss them. I want them to know what to expect from me, and above all I want them to be happy and well taken care of. And at first, I was even a bit jealous of other girls, because they got affection and attention from everyone, and they seemed happy, and I only got a handful of words from my nieces and nieces that liked me. I always had to wait and feel my nieces liked me after they finally talked to me. But now, things are different." GENRE: Happy Personage, "Tokyo o Misutaru" (Girl & Boy) DESCRIPTION: xD TOP FIVE: I don't want to do any of those boring bullshit levels there are in the magazines. So the bare narrative is that Yuuki works in Tokyo, and started work at a bar while she was still in high school. She is quite girly and once wearing a cat t-shirt that her friends took advantage of. Her friend who was there helped her out of the t-shirt, and from there, Yuuki fell into a friends that were a few of her close girlfriends. At the friends place, she started to wear more and more pants to show off her legs, then she notices how her friend who does sport was putting on a flowery dress from her and wearing high heels. Or maybe it was her, but whatever, they both wore the same glasses at the time and stopped talking and started walking together, while it was shown that Yuuki was shy and came close to her but it was her friend pushing her. While they where walking like that, a boy who was on his way home looked at the girls and her friend got kinda pissed. She got pissed, scolded the boy and kicked him off the trail they where walking. She was calm and cool before, but she changed. She found that the boy liked her friend, she was jealous but said nothing and just left. She was still happy and with her cute nieces. Years passed, the best friend was slightly jealous of
