Primo Pizza Restaurant is a family run establishment that opened its doors for business in 1997 when Christos Kotsironis, a Greek immigrant, decided to take a risk. With a lot of hard work, and a strong commitment to customer service and a quality product he built his business into what it is today. We welcome all our guests to our comfortable dining room which offers beer and wine, a large television for viewing, and food brought right to your table. Our pizza dough is still made the old fashion way, on premises daily, and every pizza sold is opened by hand one at a time for cooking.

If you want to read one of the most honest articles about the life and times of Christopher Columbus, which I have published in six part series of articles in PRIMO Magazine and a book, "Columbus on the Mainland - Christopher Columbus The Man & His Life, a People to People Saga", please see below. I speak with our children and grandchildren about Christopher Columbus In this edition of Primo Magazine, I will present the next part of the series "Christopher Columbus The Man & His Life, a People to People Saga". This section I will cover Columbus' method of ship building, the construction of his ships and how he acquired his financing. It is now accepted by maritime historians that Columbus did in fact start out on a small merchant vessel which he outfitted into a warship for the Crown in Spain. His four ships were of different sizes and versatility. The Madre de Deglia was at the time of his first voyages the largest and most seaworthy vessel of the Spanish Armada fleet. After helping beat back the English fleet at the Battle of Flores Bay in 1588, the Madre de Deglia was to be converted into a galleon to help protect the fleet in the upcoming Battle of Trafalgar. Unfortunately, her keel was damaged and she was later scuttled by her crew in Cochin China because of the lack of support and help.
