Here is the list of the products in one of the categories. Now, I have another category and I want to show the list of the matching products and categories on one page (list). I have shown one of the page in my answer but I have the issue that it shows the category name instead of its ID. Example: If we select the category name "Art & Photography" it will show the list of all the matching products and categories. In my case it shows a list of categories that include this category name. I want it to show all the matching products and categories separately. How can I achieve this? Below is the only code for my first question: {if $var2 == "1"} {section name=
