Nitori is the half-insect half-human protagonist of the Touhou Project series. She is the grand daughter of the infamous vampire Yomotsu Hiragishi and the Saffron-heiress of the Scalded Vomit clan. The family is known for the production of many drugs and poisons, however these days, because of the increased paranoia, all orders are given by remote control. Contents The first time that the player enters the Chirin no Kuni mo Ori no Monogatari (literally translated to Chirin's world of dreams, the setting of this DLC) they are greeted by Nitori, who explains to the player that she will need to have certain things in exchange for advice. Unlike most of the Touhou character personalities, Nitori doesn't speak. Upon starting the game, the player will be able to choose from the list of characters available to choose a character to meet them in this location. In a similar fashion, you can also select which map you want to start with.
